Interpretation

Arty is a pure life path 8 which indicates his direction in life is to organise and manage others. This could be in the area of finance as he also has the personality number 8 and his career pinnacles, the money numbers, 279. His previous incarnation shows Arty suffered financially as he is missing 8's in his name. In this lifetime he is here to learn to deal with money and what that represents. Although money won't be an issue for him as he can manifest money from 'nothing' when he needs to, it would be wise if he associated with people who know how to use money wisely. It would also be recommended if Arty started a savings regime and learnt to understand how to use money responsibility at an early age.

Arty is a sensitive child that will be very inquisitive and analytical with a bold exterior. He will love to research and discover things for himself and it would be recommended for mum to take him to the library from an early age. It would be best if his home environment is quiet so Arty can learn and later on study in a passive space.

He may be a little fussy, but he's just being discerning with distinct likes and dislikes. Arty will be a 'lover not a fighter' and being around competitive people or aggressive people will make him withdrawn.

Dad or father figure as expressed in the year 2013 should reinforce positive examples of creative expression, fun and harmony. Maybe take Arty out to watch plays and concerts or just sit and read together somewhere quiet. Reading outdoors with dad or father figure will create a strong communication bond.

Arty has an abundance of 1's in his chart, such as his Month and day number reduced to a single digit and his name Arty adds to 1, this shows his world will be male orientated.

Arty's name is a karmic number 19 which means he is an old soul. His life will go in cycles of 19 years where he will change direction in some way at age 19 e.g. start higher education, start a serious relationship or gain that dream job. He will feel his life up to the age of 28 is one of nurturing and support without many challenges. At 28 years he will take on further education that will enhance his career. This will bring him success.
